Solid human resource (HR) systems and tools can help you maintain a dependable and productive team when it is most important.

However, during these interesting economic times, it is even more essential to retain your best people and make informed HR decisions.

Cori Maedel, The Jouta Performance Group Inc., will introduce you to the basics of an HR infrastructure in this interactive, hands-on workshop. You’ll learn how to make better decisions around hiring, pay, benefits, training, performance, lay offs and other terminations.

About Cori Maedel

Cori’s 25 years of diverse professional experience in HR and business development has benefited many business owners at all phases of start up and development. She takes the often overwhelming subject of HR and delivers practical and realistic tools for small to medium sized business owners to implement, from new hire orientations and retention to development and training.

Her career began as a successful entrepreneur in recruiting and now encompasses a diverse range of industries. Complementing her job experience are an MBA in Strategic HR, a Certified Human Resource Professional designation and a Graduate Certificate in Executive Coaching.
